

Am I Wearing the Right Shoes?

What to wear:

Shoes with a surface that is fairly even with no deep grooves. The herringbone pattern is common with this type of tennis shoe. Tennis shoes with smooth soles or small circles are also acceptable.

What not to wear:

Training shoes or running shoes with grooves or bumps that would mark the courts.

